WHAT'S HOT!

1 / TONE POEM

Inspired by midcentury design, the husband and wife behind Two Tone Studios apply vivid colors to their handblown glassware. The Jewel Tone cups are 5" h. and cost $65 each; a matching pitcher, which comes with a stirrer, measures 13" h. and is $250. The pieces are available in ruby and saffron, shown, purple, gray, olive, and gold. 206-937-8237; twotonestudios.com

2 / BALANCE OF POWER

Hudson Valley Lighting's Deyo lamp has a counterpoised base that evokes modernist sculpture. The light, $764, is 22" h. x 21" w. It comes in a brass finish, shown, as well as bronze and nickel; the shade choices are paper, shown, or white silk. 800-814-3993; hudsonvalleylighting.com

3 / OPTIC VERVE

With its classic trompe l'oeil design, the Illusion bench by French firm 22 22 Edition Design has a wrought-iron frame and is covered with microfiber suede. It measures 50" l. x 34" h. x 25" d. and costs $2,581; custom colors and materials are on offer. 011-33-1-71-75-99-38; 2222editiondesign.fr

4 / NATURE LOVER

Gloster's Source line of outdoor furniture includes the Relaxer sofa, which has a powder-coated aluminum frame and strapping woven to resemble wicker. The 81" l. x 35" h. x 41" d. piece comes in Shadow, shown, or Creme, has an acrylic-upholstered cushion, and costs $5,845. More than 100 fabric options, including c.o.m., are available. 888-456-7837; gloster.com

5 / BLANKET STATEMENT

English designer Margo Selby has brought her playful geometric patterns to fabrics, rugs, and upholstery. Now she is launching a line of lambswool throws, including Cristobel, inspired by the rich colors of Southeast Asia. It measures 83" x 57" and costs $400. 011-44-1227-282-758; margoselby.com
