

ELLE DECOR
INDIA
FÉVRIER - MARS 2014

DECOR BUZZ

SOAKING
IN THE SUN

Unconventional yet functional –
finds from Maison & Objet,
2013 that connect you to nature

PRODUCED BY SONIA DUTT

ROCK 'N LOUNGE

Fusing the roles of a rocking and lounge chair, this polished stainless steel seater by Adish Ching, highlights a minimalist and voluptuous style.
Website: www.differentideas.in/en/room

ELLE
DECOR
LOVES

DANSK LOUNGE CHAIRS
AND COFFEE TABLE

Poul Eskildsen and Philip Behrens created
the collection for Gloster by combining traditional and modern materials to make light and tactile pieces.
Website: www.gloster.com

URBAN GARDEN
PLANT BAG

Get your own mini
green patch with this
coated polyester
fabric container by Patrick Nadeau for Authentics. Hauled up with belts, it features
a holder with drainage
felt, expanded clay
granulate, two climber
rods and a water level indicator. Available in three sizes. Website:
www.authentics.de

PIGALLE EASY
ARM CHAIR

Kenneth Cobonpue's Pigalle uses strands of polyethylene tied down by translucent nylon wires over a hand
sculpted frame of light steel.
Website: www.kennethcobonpue.com

C1715 BENCH

Made with a single piece of metal, this Jean-Claude
Gardet creation for 22 22
Edition Design is provided
with a matching cushion,
using cane patterned trompe
l'oeil. We love! Website:
www.2222editiondesign.fr

TIERA CIRCLE BENCH

Tae Suzuki's creation is perfect for public areas: The centre can be used as a parasol or a nest tree support. Produced for Zero First Design, it has a timber surface that makes for a fun, casual seating. Website: www.zero1st.com

BANC
CANNAGE
3 PLACES
C 1715

EDITION DESIGN

The ELLE DECOR team travelled to Maison et Objet courtesy Sofi Salons Francois at International Tel +33 144290200 Email info@sofisalons.fr
Maison et Objet is promoted in India by Raj Anand & Associates Tel +91 9833685256 Email raj_anand59@hotmail.com